Es muy bonito decir: Vive feliz. Pero en realidad, ¿se puede vivir feliz? Todos pasamos por momentos difíciles, hemos tenido pruebas y siempre las vamos a tener, entonces ¿En realidad, puede alguien ser plenamente feliz? Ser feliz no depende de las personas, ni de lo que hagamos o dejemos de hacer; no depende de lo que nos quiten o nos den; no depende de lo que tengamos; ser feliz depende de la percepción y del conocimiento que tengamos de Dios y de su Palabra. Salmos 16:11 dice que en la presencia de Dios hay plenitud de gozo y delicias a Su diestra para siempre. Hay muchas cosas que podremos estar pasando: tristeza, soledad, frustraciones, fracasos, desacuerdos, etc., pero hoy te quiero decir que en la presencia del Señor hay plenitud de gozo, y que ¡este es el tiempo de vivir, y de vivir feliz!

En Génesis 29 encontramos la historia de Lea, esta mujer sentía que su esposo no la amaba y decidió tener hijos para ver si su esposo la llegaba a mar; en el vs. 34 dice: "Ahora esta vez se unirá mi marido conmigo, porque le he dado tres hijos; por tanto, llamó su nombre Levi." Empezó a tratar de ser feliz con sus propias fuerzas. Tal vez no estamos felices con lo que hemos logrado en la vida; pero el Señor Jesús tiene planes perfectos con nosotros; el Señor Jesús es todopoderoso y el pelea por nosotros; no estamos solos, Él esta con nosotros. Volvamos con Lea; llegó el momento que ella concibió otra vez, pero ella entendió que podía cambiar el ambiente alrededor de ella, veamos el vs. 35: "Concibió otra vez, y dio a luz un hijo, y dijo: Esta vez alabaré a Jehová ; por eso llamo su nombre Judá..." Ella dijo esta vez será diferente, esta vez yo no me voy a quejar, esta vez no voy a culpar a mi marido, esta vez lo voy a hacer diferente; ella alabó a Dios y llamo a su hijo Judá, esta declaración de Lea trascendió; de la Tribu de Judá nació el rey David y nuestro Señor Jesucristo. Tal vez hemos tratado de ser felices con nuestras fuerzas, por eso no lo hemos logrado; pero esta vez hagámoslo diferente, aun en medio del dolor, alabemos a Dios, porque cuando empezamos a alabar a Dios las cosas cambian; cuando vemos nuestras circunstancias difíciles y alabamos a Dios trascendemos y marcamos nuestras generaciones ¡Es tiempo de vivir feliz!

It is very nice to say: Live happy. But really, can you live happy? We all go through difficult times, we have passed through trials and will continue to have them. So can anyone be completely happy?

Being happy does not depend on people, or on what we do or do not do; It does not depend on what is given to us or what is taken; It does not depend on what we have. Happiness depends on our perception and the knowledge we have of God and His Word. Psalm 16:11 says that in God's presence there is fullness of joy and pleasures at His right hand. We could be going through many things such as sadness, loneliness, frustrations, failures, disagreements, etc., but today I want to tell you that in the Lord's presence there is fullness of joy, and this is the time to live, and live happily!

In Genesis 29 we find the story of Leah, this woman felt that her husband did not love her and decided to have children to see if her husband came to see her at sea; in vs. 34 says, "Now this time my husband will join me, because I have borne three children; therefore he was named Levi." She started to try to be happy with her own forces. Perhaps you are not happy with what you have achieved in life; but the Lord Jesus has a perfect plan for you; the Lord Jesus is almighty and He fights for you; you are not alone, He is with you. Let's go back to Leah; the moment came and she conceived again, but she understood that she could change the environment around her, let's look at vs. 35: "She conceived again and gave birth to a son, and said, This time I will praise the Lord; so I called his name Judah..." She said this time will be different, this time I will not complain, this time I will not blame my husband, this time I'll do it differently; She praised God and called her son Judah. Her declaration transcended, from the Tribe of Judah, King David and our Lord Jesus Christ were born. Perhaps we have tried to be happy with our power and have failed to achieve it, but this time let's do it different. Even in the midst of pain, praise God, because when we begin to praise God things change; when we pass through difficult circumstances praise God, our praise transcends and marks the generations to come. It's time to live happy!
