

HOUSE OF GOD.

Week 29 of the year 2019

“Go Beyond”

3030 Dickerson Pike. Nashville, TN 37207. (615)262-2511

Listen to your Radio Vida 1130 AM, 1210 AM, 910 AM y 90.3 FM (Guatemala) or www.radiovida1130.com. Call us at (615)227-1130

“Come your kingdom. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so also on earth. Give us this day our daily bread.” Matthew 6:10-11

When we receive Christ in our hearts, heaven opens up and the Lord tells us, as he said to Bartimaeus: What do you want me to do to you? (Mr. 10:51) That is a very big opportunity! The Lord asks us that question because he wants us to know that we have OPEN HEAVENS.

In the Bible, God teaches us how our prayers can impact heaven and earth. In James 5:17-18 tells us that there was a character named Elijah, who was like us with errors, weaknesses and passions of every human being., But when Elijah prayed fervently, he struck heaven and earth, changed the atmosphere, change the weather forecast; Elijah prayed and three and a half years it did not rain, but then he prayed again and it rained. However during the time of drought Elijah did not lack provision because he trusted in God and knew that he had the heavens open; that is how we should be, to believe that as children of God we have the heavens open.

The main key for us to have the heavens open is PRAYER. We do not pray for emotion or sentimentality, we pray for important things that will bless and impact our family, church, city, etc. We do not pray to cover a need; but we pray to bring heaven to earth and have the result of our prayers. The fervent prayer is that which proclaims faith. We see in Jacob's life in Genesis 32: 22-30, Jacob had a fight with a man until the breaking of dawn; when the man sees that he can not overcome it, Jacob's thigh is dislocated, but even Jacob clung more to the man because he knew that this man's blessing was to bring heaven to earth, he understood that the man with whom he was fighting was not He was just any man, but he was God himself, so he clung to him and said: I will not leave you, but you will bless me. Jacob's struggle was so fervent that the result was that he obtained God's blessing to the point that he could exclaim “I saw God face to face and my soul was delivered.” Jacob could understand that God's blessing not only brought him economic prosperity, but it brought peace to the soul, forgiveness of sins, communion with God. Let's see, we have OPEN HEAVENS!

Translated by: Pr. Josue Rodriguez

Ap. Vilma Rodriguez

Ap. Vilma Rodriguez

The main key for us to have the heavens open is PRAYER. We do not pray for emotion or sentimentality, we pray for important things that will bless and impact our family, church, city, etc. We do not pray to cover a need; but we pray to bring heaven to earth and have the result of our prayers. The fervent prayer is that which proclaims faith. We see in Jacob's life in Genesis 32: 22-30, Jacob had a fight with a man until the breaking of dawn; when the man sees that he can not overcome it, Jacob's thigh is dislocated, but even Jacob clung more to the man because he knew that this man's blessing was to bring heaven to earth, he understood that the man with whom he was fighting was not He was just any man, but he was God himself, so he clung to him and said: I will not leave you, but you will bless me. Jacob's struggle was so fervent that the result was that he obtained God's blessing to the point that he could exclaim “I saw God face to face and my soul was delivered.” Jacob could understand that God's blessing not only brought him economic prosperity, but it brought peace to the soul, forgiveness of sins, communion with God. Let's see, we have OPEN HEAVENS!

Translated by: Pr. Josue Rodriguez

When we receive Christ in our hearts, heaven opens up and the Lord tells us, as he said to Bartimaeus: What do you want me to do to you? (Mr. 10:51) That is a very big opportunity! The Lord asks us that question because he wants us to know that we have OPEN HEAVENS. In the Bible, God teaches us how our prayers can impact heaven and earth. In James 5:17-18 tells us that there was a character named Elijah, who was like us with errors, weaknesses and passions of every human being., But when Elijah prayed fervently, he struck heaven and earth, changed the atmosphere, change the weather forecast; Elijah prayed and three and a half years it did not rain, but then he prayed again and it rained. However during the time of drought Elijah did not lack provision because he trusted in God and knew that he had the heavens open; that is how we should be, to believe that as children of God we have the heavens open.

“Come your kingdom. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so also on earth. Give us this day our daily bread.” Matthew 6:10-11

Listen to your Radio Vida 1130 AM, 1210 AM, 910 AM y 90.3 FM (Guatemala) or www.radiovida1130.com. Call us at (615)227-1130

3030 Dickerson Pike. Nashville, TN 37207. (615)262-2511

“Go Beyond”

HOUSE OF GOD.

Week 29 of the year 2019