The desire of God the Father is to bless us. Jeremiah 19:11 says <<“Because I know very well the plans I have for you,” says the Lord, “plans of well-being and not of calamity, in order to give you a future and a hope.”>> There is no doubt, God's blessings are for us; but how to activate those blessings in our life?

Activating means: Making it work at the moment, speeding it up, be accelerated and enlarging it. How to achieve this in our lives, that God's blessings work in the moment, that they accelerate, that they be speeded up, that they be enlarged?

Today the word “blessing” is so beaten that it seems that it has lost its meaning and value; we say “God bless you” “I bless you” or “blessings” but we don't see it done in our lives. What is happening? We are doing something wrong that we fail to activate

God's blessings in our lives.

Ezekiel 44:30 gives us the answer: “And the firstfruits of all the first fruits of all, and every offering of all that is presented of all your offerings, shall be of the priests; you will also give the priest the firstfruits of all your masses, so that the blessing may rest in your homes.” When we bring our firstfruits to God, his blessing is activated in our home, because when we bring the firstfruits to God we honor him, and when we honor God, he gives us blessings.

To activate God's blessings, let's follow these three premises: 1.– God comes first (Matthew 6:33). 2.– Let us hear the advice of wise, capable and spiritual people (1 R. 3: 9-10; 4: 1-5) and 3.– Let us pay our firstfruits.
