

MI CASA, UN LUGAR PARA DIOS “¡DIOS, Yo Reflejo Tú GRANDEZA!”

Semana 13 del año 2026

En Hageo 2:11-14 está escondido un principio espiritual muy profundo que Dios hoy nos lo quiere revelar: La santidad no se contagia, pero el pecado sí.

La santidad no se transmite, no se hereda. Uno de los ejemplos más claros es Judas Iscariote, él caminó tres años con Jesús, escuchó todos sus sermones, vio milagros, fue testigo de sanidades, participó en el ministerio y, aun así, terminó traicionándolo. Estuvo cerca de la santidad, pero eso no transformó su corazón. Muchos piensan que para cambiar el corazón es suficiente con ir a la iglesia, tener una Biblia en la mesa o escuchar las predicaciones; pero no funciona así, la santidad requiere decisión personal, disciplina, y carácter.

El pecado sí se contagia rápidamente (vs. 13). El pecado se propaga más rápido que la santidad. La historia de Acan lo ejemplifica claramente (Jos. 7). Acán tomó algo prohibido, parecía un pecado privado, pero el resultado fue que toda la nación perdió una batalla. Un pecado escondido contaminó todo el campamento. Si en la casa una persona comienza con mala actitud, críticas, enojo constante o gritos, poco a poco toda la atmósfera del hogar cambia, se pone tensa e insostenible.

La buena noticia es que Dios ofrece restauración (vs. 19). Esto es impresionante, el templo todavía no estaba terminado, pero Dios les dice: “Desde este día os bendeciré”. Cuando una familia decide volver a Dios, la restauración comienza antes de que todo esté arreglado. ¡Dios responde al corazón que se arrepiente!

Semana 13 del año 2026

MI CASA, UN LUGAR PARA DIOS
“¡DIOS, Yo Reflejo Tú GRANDEZA!”

MY HOUSE, A PLACE FOR GOD

"GOD, I Reflect Your GREATNESS!"

Week 13, of the year 2026

Hidden within Haggai 2:11–14 lies a profound spiritual principle that God wishes to reveal to us today: Holiness is not contagious, but sin is.

Holiness is not transmitted; it is not inherited. One of the clearest examples of this is Judas Iscariot: he walked with Jesus for three years, listened to all His sermons, witnessed miracles, saw healings, and participated in the ministry yet, despite all this, he ended up betraying Him. He was near holiness, but that did not transform his heart. Many believe that to change one's heart, it is sufficient simply to attend church, keep a Bible on the table, or listen to sermons; but it does not work that way. Holiness requires personal decision, discipline, and character.

Sin is indeed contagious and it spreads rapidly (v. 13).

Sin propagates faster than holiness. The story of Achan clearly exemplifies this (Joshua. 7). Achan took something forbidden; it appeared to be a private sin, yet the result was that the entire nation lost a battle. A hidden sin contaminated the entire camp. If one person in a household begins to harbor a bad attitude marked by criticism, constant anger, or shouting gradually the entire atmosphere of the home changes, becoming tense and unbearable.

The good news is that God offers restoration (v. 19). This is remarkable: the temple was not yet finished, yet God told them, "From this day on I will bless you." When a family decides to return to God, restoration begins even before everything is fully resolved. God responds to a repentant heart!
